This Week's VIRTUAL Program: Darlene Celeste Beal

Our Rotary Club of Atlanta West End meeting on Friday, November 20, will be held 100% virtually. We are pleased to welcome Darlene Celeste Beal, an Atlanta native, educator, author, artist, attorney, and community advocate, as our program speaker. The great-niece of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Beal is passionate about empowering young people through creativity, education, and leadership development.

Darlene Celeste Beal

Darlene Celeste Beal is a dynamic leader, creative visionary, and advocate for community empowerment who uses her voice and talents to inspire the next generation. An educator, author, artist motivational speaker from Atlanta, Georgia, she has dedicated her life to helping young people discover their purpose, develop leadership skills, and use creativity as a force for positive change. Through her work in youth leadership academies, writing workshops, and community programs, she teaches students how to lead with confidence, compassion, and integrity while pursuing excellence in education, the arts, and service.

As a lawyer, poet, songwriter, speaker, and director of multiple initiatives that support mental wellness, literacy, and leadership, Ms. Beal believes that every young person has the power to shape the future. While she is proud to be the great-niece of Dr. Martin

District Grant Project Update

Donations Delivered to Booker T. Washington High School

Thanks to the generosity of our members, snack donations have been delivered to Booker T. Washington High School! Bridgette Long and her husband dropped off the supplies and had an opportunity to visit the school's Care Center, where students can access donated items in a welcoming, well-organized space.

A special thank-you to Bridgette and all who donated for their contributions and support. This project is another meaningful way our club is helping meet students' needs and strengthening our partnership with Booker T. Washington High School.
