This Week’s Program:

Spencer Hardin, Advocacy Manager, Alzheimer's Association--GA Chapter

In his role, Spencer educates and trains advocates across the state, leads year-round grassroots policy initiatives, and helps strengthen relationships with Georgia's state and federal lawmakers. The Alzheimer’s Association is a nationwide organization with a strong presence in Georgia, providing crucial resources, advocacy, and support for those living with Alzheimer’s disease and other dementias, as well as for their caregivers and families.